

Short Bio

Forthcoming. Novella, If You Live in a Small House, Mutual Publishing, Honolulu, Fall 2010. Reading and panel member at PAMLA (Pacific Ancient and Modern Language Association) conference in Honolulu, November 2010.

Publications. Fiction and poetry in The Iowa Review, New American Writing, St. Petersburg Review, Five Fingers Review, Fourteen Hills. Anthologized in Honolulu Stories (Mutual Publishing) and Oakland Outloud (Jukebox Press).

Awards. 2009 Aurora Theatre / Global Age Project finalist (stage play); 2008 St. Petersburg Review poetry contest runner-up; 2007 SLS merit scholarship in St. Petersburg, Russia (poetry); 2004 Iowa Fiction Award runner-up; 1999 AWP Summer Seminars Fellowship in Prague, Czech Republic (creative nonfiction); 1999 Iowa Literary Award (creative nonfiction).

Readings. Group readings in San Francisco, Oakland, Prague, St. Petersburg.

Unpublished. Prose poem cycle, Looking for My Husband; collections of poetry, short fiction, creative nonfiction.

Teaching. Undergraduate English at Ohlone College (2004 to present), creative writing at San Francisco State University (2002 to 2004).

Website. Teaching and writing at <sandratpark.com>.

Education:

2005 MFA, Creative Writing, San Francisco State University
2004 Post-Secondary Reading Certificate, SFSU
2003 Post-Secondary Composition Certificate, SFSU
2002 MA, English, SFSU
1970 BA, Liberal Arts, University of Hawaii

Personal:

Born and raised in Hawaii. Currently live in the San Francisco Bay Area. Married to John Hamburger with three adult children—Naomi, David, and Sarah.